

Closed-form approximation of the function θ for different values of the inventory

